

Car IQ Technician Agreement Form

Car IQ Usage Guidelines:

- Car IQ can only be used on days where a technician is actively running tickets.
- DO NOT use CarIQ the night before tickets will be run, or the morning after tickets were run.
- Car IQ can only be charged to the registered vehicle under your name in CarIQ.
- If the technician is travelling for business purposes (travelling to a training facility, company travel, etc.), the technician must get approval for usage from HR AND Senior Branch Manager BEFORE any travelling begins, for approval to use at the start and/or during the exactly specified travel dates.

Failure to follow these guidelines will result in, but are not limited to:

- Administrative or disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- Removal from the CarIQ system.
- Employee tier demotion or potential financial reimbursement liability, handled in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.
